

Family

Give thanks for the different groups and churches that support families of prisoners. Pray that those families, who are trying to join a local church, will find a warm and welcoming group which is right for them.

Addictions are at the core of many family problems. Pray for grace and strength in abundance for those living with/caring for an addict.

Pray for families struggling with press intrusion and, in many cases, fake news. Pray for peace of mind and calm reactions to this added stress.

Give thanks for the relief which some mothers now have that their family member has found a safe place to live, post release.

Pray for those parents who are on their own supporting their children through exams.

Give thanks for those who have benefited from the NHS and are making a good recovery back to full health.

Aftercare - Men

The Voices of Hope have had a great time singing at several recent events and continue to receive invites to visit churches and groups. Please give thanks for Ali and all the men in the choir.

B has retired this month and is very happy to have moved into his new flat. Please pray for him as he settles in.

P's health is very poor at the moment; he is waiting on a specific diagnosis from test results. Pray his health will improve and that he can return to church soon.

Pray for the community addictions teams. We have several men struggling with drugs and alcohol, and they are trying to help them. Pray for breakthrough.

We continue to be blessed by the help and support from Hunter and Wilma at the Haven Christian Centre. Please join us in celebrating another year married last month. We wish we had their energy!

Volunteer

Pray for all new ST volunteers who have started with their first course. Pray they would be challenged as they help PF staff to run each programme.

Pray for each prisoner in YOC receiving a birthday card, handwritten by volunteers. Pray they would be blessed by the love and thoughtfulness.

Remember each of our prison volunteers working alongside Dean, Paul, and Joanne. Pray for wisdom and blessing as they carry out their roles.

Please remember all volunteers as they journey with some very difficult individuals. We need wisdom and help every day to fulfil the ministry God has brought each volunteer into.

Aftercare - Women

Continue to pray for A who is not responding to any contact. Lynne and others are very worried about her. Pray she will stay safe and will respond soon.

R has had a few hospital trips -drug overdose related. Pray she will know she is loved, accept support, and make better choices.

Some women have become homeless recently. Pray they will have suitable accommodation soon.

R really wants to study at university. Pray for favour throughout the application process.

Prison

Give thanks for the mission in Magilligan last month, and for the men who responded to an appeal on the Friday evening. Pray they will know God's presence and understand more about Him.

At PF we have the wonderful privilege to share the gospel message of God's forgiveness and freedom. Pray that all the men who were spoken to during the mission week will never forget what they heard.

Give thanks for the men who have completed the Sycamore tree course and are released, clearly changed by the whole experience. Pray for the three courses taking place this month with 40 men attending, and for lives to be transformed.
