

Aftercare - Women

Continue to pray for families who support a loved one battling an addiction. Pray for much needed grace and emotional and physical strength.

Throughout November, please pray for Lynne and the female Aftercare team as they work hard on making their Christmas event really special for the women. Pray for His leading and guidance.

Pray for families who will experience Christmas for the first time with a loved one in prison.

7th - pray for the Instilling Hope group as they meet tonight. May all the women feel loved and encouraged.

Volunteers & General

Please pray for new male Aftercare volunteers helping with programmes and visits in the centre and community.

Please pray for all volunteers helping with Christmas Hope. Pray for safe travelling and weather conditions on the roads as they prepare and distributing hampers and toys.

Please pray for staff continuing to speak at deputations. Pray that they would be encouraged as they share with PW groups.

Family

Pray for families who are faced with the difficult and painful decision of whether or not to bring their relation back into the family home after release.

Pray for daily strength and stamina for our families trying to live under the cloud of a loved one in prison.

Please pray for the families we support who are facing the disappointment of their child reoffending shortly after being released from prison.

Pray for families who are in a difficult economic situation as they prepare for Christmas. Thank God for the help that 'Christmas Hope' brings to them.

Aftercare - Men

Pray for K. He just got a flat after coming out of prison. It needs a lot of work.

Pray for D. He has been released from prison homeless and is living on the streets.

Thank you for keeping R in prayer. It's working! Pray that he will be free from all courts and prison this month because he has stopped offending.

Pray for the Voices of Hope choir as they take a break to allow Ali to get better. Pray that Ali gets well soon.

Prisons

Please pray for A who needs God's breakthrough as he is constantly returning to prison. Pray for his family who are really struggling to continue to support him as it is taking its toll on them.

Pray for C who wants to know God but his addiction and mental health issues are really hampering this. Pray for a breakthrough and a support network for both inside prison and on his release.

Pray for M who is really struggling with prison life. This is his first time and feels like he's going to have a breakdown. Pray for peace and strength for him.

Please also pray for the ladies who have recently completed Sycamore Tree in Hydebank.

Pray for those who are going to find themselves in prison over Christmas, either for the first time or for another year. Pray for family and loved ones on the outside.
